

Nature Connection Retreat for Teachers

Relax, Reset and Reconnect

Take some time to build your bonds with nature. Be awakened to the potential for learning in a range of environments in the middle of the Great Western Woodlands around Koora Retreat Centre. Experience learning within nature and gain skills in facilitating this learning in others. A chance to relax, reset and connect to nature so you are better able to connect children in your outdoor classrooms. Trudi and Daniel will be available to help you reflect and set goals for your nature pedagogy.

Sunday 2nd - Friday 7th October, 2016

Koora Retreat Centre

Bounded by Boorabbin National Park off the Great Eastern Highway between Southern Cross and Coolgardie. Travel at own cost: train or self-drive.

Cost: $500.00

Accommodation and Catering

Koora Retreat Centre provides simple, comfortable accommodation in the midst of the desert landscape. You can choose to have your own room, twin share or the option to tent all with shared facilities.

You will have plenty of wholesome food, which we'll cook together as community.

Building Bonds & Breaching Barriers

Trudi invites you to the home of her nature connection in the wilds of the Western Woodland. Far away from the stress of the city move through a process of shedding stress, observing nature through art, recognising barriers, using traditional crafts to build bonds, simple living and thankful gifting to the environment and community.
